To: All Business Partners and Affiliates of Bangkok Chain Hospital Public Company Limited

Bangkok Chain Hospital Public Company Limited (“the Company”) is committed to conducting its business with integrity, transparency, and accountability. The Company places great importance on adhering to ethical principles, promoting good corporate governance, and preventing corruption in all forms. The Company has established an Anti-Corruption Policy and Guideline to ensure that all directors, executives, and employees act with honesty and integrity in accordance with the Company’s Code of Conduct and related anti-corruption measures. In recognition of this commitment, the Company has been certified as a member of the Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption (CAC), under the Thai Institute of Directors Association, since 10 November 2017, and continues to maintain its certification through ongoing compliance with anti-corruption standards.

In addition, the Company recognizes that conducting business sustainably requires operating responsibly based on ethical principles. This foundation of integrity extends to our relationships with business partners and stakeholders, ensuring that all activities are carried out with fairness, transparency, and adherence to relevant laws, human rights, and environmental standards. The Company continually promotes the development of its partners and suppliers to grow together with sustainability and ethical practices in mind. The Company emphasizes the importance of developing its operations alongside partners under good governance, social, and environmental frameworks, encouraging mutual growth and long-term collaboration based on transparency, fairness, and responsibility.

The Company would like to encourage all of you to give importance to complying with the Business Code of Conduct and Anti-Corruption Policy in all forms, in line with the Company’s Supplier Code of Conduct and Anti-Corruption Policy, which have been published on the Company’s website at www.bangkokchainhospital.com under the section “Corporate Governance”, then select “Corporate Governance and Business Ethics Policy”, followed by the sub-section “Policies and Key Manuals.” Furthermore, the Company invites you to publicly declare your intention to become a member of the Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption (CAC) to promote sustainable business practices throughout the value chain based on ethical conduct, transparency, and integrity, free from corruption. By doing so, you will contribute to strengthening your organization’s long-term sustainable growth and success, creating shared value and confidence across the business community.
